Bonus Activity – My Dream Costume

It's the Halloween Party! Imagine your dream costume. Write 3–4 sentences about it.

Use adjectives (big, scary, funny, beautiful) and colours.

Say what you can do in this costume.

Example:

- My dream costume is a skeleton.
- It is black and white and very scary.
- I can dance in the costume.
- Everyone will laugh!

Now you try!

Write your sentences here:

Optional: Draw your dream costume in the box!

Audio-Script Dialogue

M: What time does the Halloween party start? Seven o'clock?

F: No, it starts at six o'clock in the evening.

M: Six o'clock?

F: Yes, that's right.

(pause — example)

C: Where's the party happening? Is it in the school gym?

F: Not in the school, no. It's in the village hall this year. There's more space there.

M: Oh, the village hall, that makes sense.

C: And what about the food? Are they making pizzas again?

F: Well, there might be some small pizzas, but the big thing is a big cake. It's decorated like a pumpkin, with orange and black icing.

M: A cake? That sounds delicious.

C: Will there be a band playing at the party?

F: No, not a live band, but they'll play some spooky music so the children can dance.

M: Great — dancing to music is always fun.

C: Are we going to watch a film this time?

F: No, not this year. But there'll be lots of games to play, like "pin the hat on the witch."

M: I love those games.

C: Do we have to wear anything special?

F: Yes, everyone must come in a costume.

M: Last year I dressed up as a skeleton.

F: A skeleton? That must have been scary!

C: And who's helping to organise the party? Is it Mr White?

F: No, not Mr White. It's Mrs Weems. She's making all the decorations.

M: Brown? How do you spell that?

F: W-E-E-M-S

M: Oh yes, Larissa Weems.

R: Now listen again.
